Brian, Edinburgh

My brother and I were at home by 2) _____, watching TV. At some point, we heard a strange buzzing sound. The sound 3) _____ wasn't scary, but it wouldn't stop and was driving 4) _____ crazy!

After about an hour's search, we discovered that there was a swarm of bees helping 5) _____ to some honey that had somehow spilled on the floor behind the kitchen counter. Mystery was solved!

Clark, Kent

That's funny, Brian!

Unfortunately, my story isn't so funny. Last summer I was in Cuba, and I decided to teach 6) _____ how to surf. I was in the water when this strange, huge creature rose from the water and jumped over my head. I don't know what it was but it looked like nothing I'd ever seen before. A girl surfing nearby saw it too, and she said the same thing 7) _____.

Anyway, I was so shocked that I lost my balance and landed on the surf board, breaking both my arms in the process. For a month I couldn't even wash or dress 8) _____ and it was really hard for 9) _____.

Last I heard, the creature is still out there.
