

Complete the sentences with both, neither, either, none, all, any
(+ of where necessary!).

1. I tried two bookshops for the dictionary, but _____ had one.
2. I asked a few people the way to the station, but _____ them knew it.
3. She was invited to two parties yesterday, but she didn't go to _____.
4. Which of the two shirts do you like? - _____ them are too big.
5. My friends and I often play tennis together, but _____ us can play it well.
6. There were three windows in the room and I opened _____ them.
7. Could you give me a pen. Mine wouldn't write. I see you've got two. – Ok. You may take _____.
8. I read two books last week and I liked _____. They are really interesting.
9. _____ my friends live near my house so we often visit each other.
10. We've got a good choice of mobiles. _____ of them are quite modern. These two, for example, are the latest model. Do you like them. – Oh, yes. I like _____. But I won't buy them. – Are there _____ reasons for not buying such good phones? – Alas, they are _____ too expensive.

