

Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

1. A: I wish they _____ (stop) hunting Dodo birds before they became extinct.
B: Me too. It's very sad. But most of all I wish they _____ (stop) hunting all the endangered species in future.
2. A: I wish I _____ (had) more money. I want to go skiing this weekend.
B: Don't worry. I'll lend you some.
3. A: If only we _____ (bring) a torch with us!
B: I know. This cave is very dark.
4. A: I wish we _____ (bring) more food with us. I am already hungry and there's nothing left in the bag except a tin of soup. But we can't open it.
B: Yes, I wish we _____ (have) a can opener or a knife at least.
5. A: I wish Roger _____ (not/do) extreme sports. His mother is so worried.
B: She shouldn't worry about him. He's always very careful.
6. A: I didn't see you in our charity fair. What's the matter?
B: I wish I _____ (take) part in the charity race, but I was busy.
7. I wish I _____ (be) on holiday now, somewhere on the beach. But I have too much work to do.
8. I hurt my head ice climbing this morning. I wish I _____ (wear) a helmet.
9. Mark moved to Alaska and lost touch with most of his friends. Now he wishes he _____ (restore) his relationship with them in the future.
10. I am afraid we are lost in the wood and GPS doesn't work. I wish I _____ (have) GLONASS in my phone. It's more reliable.

