

Extra Training

Causative Task 1909

1. Complete the exchanges with the causative form of the verbs in brackets.
Don't use contracted forms!

1. A: Your hair's a lovely colour!

B: Thanks. I _____ (it/dye) yesterday.

2. A: _____ (your eyes/test) yet?

B: Yes, I went to the eye specialist yesterday.

3. A: When will we see the photos from your new performance?

B: My father didn't send them yet. I think I _____ (they/send) soon.

4. A: Has the new fashion catalogue been posted yet?

B: Yes. We _____ (it/deliver/just).

5. A: Do you wash your car by yourself?

B: No, I _____ (it/clean/usually) every fortnight.

6. A: Have the Simpsons painted their fence yet?

B: No, They _____ (it/paint) tomorrow.

2. Read the situations, then write sentences using the causative form.

7. A dressmaker will take in Pamela's dress this week. What will she do?

= She _____.

8. A beauty therapist was plucking Helen's eyebrows at 2:00. What was she doing?

= She _____.

9. The manager has asked a psychologist to interview the applicants. What has he done?

= The manager _____.

10. Ken is going to find someone to draw a sketch of his dog. What is he going to do?

= He _____.

