The Fast Way

It's Saturday morning. Ellen is going to meet her friends, Mandy and Jack, at the zoo.

"How do I get to the zoo?" Ellen asks her mother.

"You have to take the bus. First, walk up the street and turn right," her mother says. "Then, go over the bridge and turn left. You'll see the bus stop there."

Ellen walks to the bus stop and rides the bus to the zoo. It takes one hour. When she gets there, she's thirsty and tired. Mandy and Jack are waiting for her.

"Hi," Mandy says. "What took you so long?"

"I'm sorry. The bus was slow and hot," says Ellen. "How did you get to the zoo?"

"We caught a taxi," says Jack. "It was fast and easy."
