

Lesson 6

How are recounts and narratives similar? How are they different? Complete the table by selecting your answers from the list. (You can use each answer more than once.)

	Recount	Narrative
Purpose
Structure
Beginning
Middle
End
Language Features

Tells about something that happened in the past
Events unfold in chronological order
A problem or crisis develops
The moral to the story
The problem or crisis is resolved
The setting and characters are introduced
To inform and entertain by retelling an event
Always written in the past tense.
Uses figurative language
To entertain and educate readers or viewers through story