Reciprocal Pronouns

Name: _____ Date: _____

Each Other	One Another
Each other is used when only two people are doing an action at the same time.  Eg. Jane and Mary are talking to each other.	One another is used when more than two people are doing the same action at the same time.  Eg. The children are fighting one another.

Use with each other or one another to complete each of the following sentences.

1. We meet _____ everyday.
2. The boy kept chairs with _____.
3. Jenny and Jack study with _____.
4. Kartik and naira give _____ gifts during the anniversary.
5. They all played _____.
6. My family is speaking to _____ in the living room.
7. Both of my neighbors hate _____.
8. Ladies are fighting _____ for a dress.
9. Payal and Sakshi are talking to _____ about the result.
10. Students in the dance are trying to win by defeating _____.
11. The team was playing with _____ on the playground.
12. Avani and I decided to play with _____ instead of fighting over the same toy.
13. They supported _____ in the project.
14. The children are in competition with _____.
15. The two friends are working with _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS