

1. What is probably true about the speakers?

- They are working on a school project.
- They are currently at an art gallery.
- They are on a field trip.
- They are taking pictures of the objects.

2. What are the speakers mainly talking about?

- The recent history test that they took
- How much they enjoy Mr. Warren's class
- The chances of having a pop test in class
- The failure of one of the boys to do the reading

3. What is the student's problem?

- He is not paying close attention in class.
- He is speaking with his friends in class too much.
- He has gotten low grades on his recent assignments.
- He finds the material they are studying to be hard.

4. What can be inferred about the boy?

- He intends to have a science club meeting in a week.
- He thinks being the president of the science club is too hard.
- He is no longer interested in the science club.
- He enjoys working together with Mr. Kipley.

5. What does the girl imply when she says this: "That's smart thinking"?

- She wants to give the boy some help.
- She has come up with a good idea.
- She knows how to solve the problem.
- She supports the boy's action.

6. What is probably true about the teacher?

- She enjoyed the girl's presentation.
- She is going to prepare the projector.
- She will give the girl an extension.
- She forgot about the girl's assignment.

7. What is the main topic of the announcement?

- Why the students need to listen to the teacher
- How to be safe in the laboratory
- Which experiment they will conduct
- The clothes students should wear

8. What does the teacher ask the students to do?

- Read a passage in their books
- Name some figures of speech
- Write a short poem
- Think of some similes

9. Why does the teacher talk about the slippery floor?

- To explain how long the floor will be slick
- To give some rules on how to behave while at school
- To warn the students so that they do not get hurt
- To tell the students what happened to the receptionist