June 14,

Today was a very interesting day. I have just got back ____ an incredible adventure in a haunted convenient store! Today we met Wendy's friends - Tembry, Thompson, Lee, Nater and Robby. I must say Robby wasn't fond ____ me and actually he took a dislike to me after I pointed out that his drawing of giant explosion looks like a muffin. We went to a haunted store. I must admit I was afraid ____ this place because it looked creepy. The store was closed. But I managed to get into the shop and open the door ____ the inside. It went well and I thought it is the funniest day ____ all summer. Untill ... Well, this store was indeed haunted. The two ghosts ____ the store owners didn't like teenagers for some reason and they banned teenagers ____ the store. I managed to solve the problem and saved my friends. But I didn't feel proud ____ myself. I am very glad that Wendy saved me ____ the embarrassment ____ telling the truth how I had fought these two ghosts. This adventure was too dangerous ____ my point of view and next time we really should stay at Mystery Shack. By the way, I have never known that Stan is fond ____ classic films. Signing off for tonight,
