I am Nataly and Alicia is a beautiful girl. We get along really well. I met her in my cousin's birthday party. She lives in Guanajuato and sometimes she comes to visit me. Last month, I went to visit her. My flight took off at 9:00 in the morning and she picked me up at the airport at 11:00am. Then, she took me up to a beautiful restaurant to eat something. We spent hours talking and laughing. I told her I broke down with my boyfriend and I decided to visit her to get over; we visited different places in Guanajuato and in the afternoon, we went back to her house because she had to look after her little brother, he is 7 years old. I noticed her family take off their shoes before to go in her house. I stayed there two weeks. It was a beautiful time. Alicia has become in one of my best friends.
