READING

Read the reviews and answer the questions.

Kevin: I'm trying to find an apartment, but I can't decide which app to use. Has anyone tried using the Apartment Hunter App? I wonder if it's worth the fee.

Michelle: My husband and I are using the app right now to find a new apartment. We love it! The app lets you search for apartments that have exactly what you need. You can search for apartments near a train station or apartments that have a basement with space for all your extra things. We have a dog, so we only searched for apartments that allow pets.

We answered some questions about how much money we want to spend and what we want to have in our home, and the app has already found some great apartments for us. It's really easy to use. Yesterday we applied for an apartment nearby. It's beautiful – it has a large backyard for the dog and even a garden! I see that you're from Seaford – that's where the apartment is. Maybe we'll be neighbors next year!

Henry: The app is great. The best part is that it lets you take a 3D tour of the apartments, so you don't need to spend your time driving around the city visiting apartments. I've already viewed a few apartments online using my phone. It was amazing how I could "walk" through the hallways and into the rooms. It felt like I was there in person. It saved me so much time and energy!

Kevin: How exciting! It seems like you both had a really good experience. I heard that you can also use the app to pay rent. Do you know if that's true?

Henry: Yeah, that's another feature of the app. I haven't used it yet, but it's going to be quite useful in the future.

Michelle: I suggest you try it! Spend the money if it helps you find the perfect apartment!

____ 28. Which statement describes Michelle's opinion about Apartment Hunter?

a. It is a good way to find an apartment.
b. It is the best app available.
c. It is too expensive.

____ 29. What does Henry like the most about the app?

a. You can save a lot of money.
b. You can view the apartment on your phone.
c. You can pay rent easily.
