Citizens of the world

1. Match the words with their definitions, use the dictionary:

Achievement	something that is done to cause something to happen
award	a process of slow change and development
contribution	careful study that is done to find and report new knowledge about something
evolution	something (such as a prize) that is given to someone or something for being excellent or for doing something that is admired
research	one of six annual prizes that are awarded to people for important work in the fields of literature, physics, chemistry, medicine, and economics and for helping to bring about peace in the world
Nobel Prize	extremely good or excellent outstanding	something that has been done or achieved through effort : a result of hard work

Fill in the gaps with the right words from active vocabulary orally:

1. He won the _____ for economics.
2. Will the film win any _____ at the festival?
3. She conducts _____ into/on the causes of Alzheimer's disease.
4. The discovery of DNA was a major scientific _____.
5. She's honored for her _____ [=efforts, work] towards finding a cure for AIDS.
6. We have been able to watch her _____ [=growth] into a world-class runner.
7. You did an _____job on the project.

How many definitions can you name? Compete!

2. Listen to the audio. Match the names of famous scientists with their achievements:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Boris Kit	?	This person made moon flights possible, invented space rocket fuel.
Zhores Alferov	?	He fought for the rights of the locals in Hawaii
Nikolas Sudzilovsky	?	He studied the connection between the solar activity and the periods of war throughout history.
Sofia Kovalevskaya	?	This person invented supersonic jets.
Alexander Chizhevsky	?	The first female professor of Maths.
Pavel Sukhoi	?	He won the Nobel Prize for Physics in 2000.

3. Listen to the questions of a reporter, answer them orally:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Write an essay about famous Belarusian scientists. Use the link for help.

LIVEWORKSHEETS