

future continuous, future perfect simple, be going to, present simple and continuous

COMPLETE WITH THE RIGHT TENSE, FUTURE PERFECT SIMPLE OR FUTURE CONTINUOUS

1. I think I(visit) the whole city in two day's time
2. It's 7 PM. Mandy (already/end) her volleyball training
3. This time next week we (cross) the Pacific Ocean on a big cruise liner
4. (give /back) the book to the library yet?
5. I'm sure everybody now(ask) Nellie why I didn't go to her birthday party
5. A (Alexia/work) on her PC now? No she (Just/finish) working
6. They (play) cards now. They play cards every Saturday night.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT ALTERNATIVE

- 1 June isn't home at this time. She works out/will be working out/will have worked out at the gym now
2. If the coach calls me at the gym at this time tomorrow, I'll have dinner out/ I will be having dinner out/ I will have had dinner out
3. What will you do /will you be doing/ will you have done this time next year? I have no idea!
4. Tania can't answer the phone right now, she is washing/ she will be washing/she will have washed the car in the garage
5. Don't text him now, it's 6 pm and I'm sure he arrives/will be arriving/will have arrived any moment now!
6. We go/will be going/will have gone out for a pizza tonight. Do you come/will you be coming/will you have come with us?
7. I'm sure Tom will tell/will be telling his girlfriend the whole story at this very moment and hopefully she will believe/will be believing/will have believed him!
8. Look! it will be raining /is going to rain. It's so cloudy today!
9. On Monday at 10 PM Pierre will be training /trains as usual and I will wait /will be waiting for him at home to have dinner
10. Are you going to meet/Will you be meeting Carlos next Saturday? Yes, shall I tell him something?