EZ Screen Fans @LizaPrav

Modern Family S3 Ep 5

goals

to homeschool, flip through, get out there, contribute, be good at, saved up, frozen assets, depend on, war on drugs, subordinates.

Read the examples and write original sentences using the words in bold to demonstrate their meaning. Focus on creating sentences that show how the words are used in real-life situations.

to homeschool: I decided to homeschool my children so I could be more involved in their education.

flip through: During my free time, I like to flip through fashion magazines to get some outfit ideas.

get out there: If you want to improve your English, you should get out there and practice speaking with native speakers.

contribute: It's important to contribute to the community by volunteering and helping those in need.

saved up: She saved up money for years to take a trip around the world.

frozen assets: Due to the economic crisis, some businesses had their assets frozen by the government.

subordinates: As a team leader, I depend on my subordinates to complete their tasks efficiently.

war on drugs: The government declared a war on drugs to combat the illegal drug trade in the country.

Read the text and fill in the gaps with words from the box contribute flipped subordinates assets on (*3) out homeschool up

Once upon a time, in a small town, there was a woman named Emma. She used to work in the office of a big company, but she always dreamed of something more. Emma wanted to her kids and spend more time with them.

One day, she through some magazines and found an article about successful people who worked from home. Inspired by their stories, she decided to get there and explore new possibilities. Emma realized she could to her family's well-being while pursuing her dreams.

Emma was good at organizing and planning, so she started her own online business. She saved money to support her family during the initial phase of her venture. Unfortunately, her town faced an economic crisis, and the government had to freeze some . This situation made it even more challenging for her.

However, Emma's determination didn't depend external circumstances. She knew she had to adapt and continue. She waged a war drugs and her doubts and fears, just like the country was fighting a war drugs.

With hard work and perseverance, Emma's online business began to flourish. Her efforts paid off, and she could homeschool her kids while earning an income from home. It wasn't easy, but she found a balance between being a teacher and a businesswoman.

Over time, Emma's business grew, and she had to hire to help manage the workload. She was grateful for the opportunity to provide job opportunities for others in her community.

Emma's success story became an inspiration for many in the town. Her dedication and commitment proved that with the right mindset and skills, one could achieve their dreams even during challenging times.

In the end, Emma proved that sometimes, taking a leap of faith and pursuing your passions can lead you to unexpected and fulfilling paths. Her decision to step out of the traditional office job and embrace change transformed her life and the lives of those around her.

Fill in the gaps with do / did / are / have / had you good at playing any musical instruments or sports?

How you depend on your subordinates in the workplace?

How much money they saved up for their future plans?

What contributions you make to your community last year?

you homeschooled your children before they decided to attend a traditional school?

LIVEWORKSHEETS