I remember the first time I saw him. It was in the college library. He looked very

(1) _____ and I didn't (2) _____ him at all. I gave him a (3) _____ smile whenever I saw him, but nothing else. Then, during the fourth week, I was at a party.

I wasn't having a very good time. It was in quite a small apartment and there were

(4) _____ people so it felt rather (5) _____. Also, the music wasn't very

(6) _____ and I didn't know anyone. Then I saw him and he smiled and came over to me. We started chatting and suddenly I realised how good looking he was. But more importantly, he was charming and very (7) _____. We left the party early and he walked me back to the hostel through the (8) _____. He then said goodbye and walked off. I think that was the moment when I (9) _____ with him.

EXERCISE 2. Read the passage below. Choose the word or phrase from the box that best fits each space. Use each word or phrase only once.

When I was younger I (1) _____ my money on stupid things. But recently I've had to become more (2) _____ because I don't (3) _____ very much, although I'm very (4) _____. In fact, after I've paid for my food and my rent, I have very little left. I survive by buying lots of (5) _____ things - clothes, books, music etc. This month I've managed to (6) _____ some money. My friends are amazed that I'm not (7) _____. But I think you have to be (8) _____.
