

(17) TRAVELERS

ACTIVITY 1: Match the different kinds of traveler with the categories 1 - 5.

ADVENTURER BACKPACKER COMMUTER EXPLORER IMMIGRANT
MOTORIST NOMAD PASSENGER REFUGEE TOURIST

1. Someone who travels a short distance between home and work or school is a/an _____, _____, _____.
2. Someone who leaves their country to escape danger or poverty is a/an _____, _____.
3. Travelling is the traditional way of life for a/an _____, _____, _____.
4. Someone who travels on vacation is a/an _____, _____.
5. Someone who travels to discover something new about the world is a/an _____, _____.

ACTIVITY 2: Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. I would describe myself as an adventurer / a tourist, not an adventurer / a tourist, because I like to go to places that most people don't visit on vacation.
2. He doesn't mind driving, but he prefers being a commuter / passenger.
3. In the late 19th century, thousands of immigrants / refugees moved to the US for a better life.
4. Millions of tourists / backpackers come to the city every summer. Many are tourists / backpackers looking for cheap food and accommodation.
5. Many places and species are named after the German explorer / adventurer Alexander Von Humboldt.

ACTIVITY 3: Watch the video. What do Sofia and Zach say about 1-5.

1. commuters in Los Angeles

2. our ancestors

3. digital nomads

4. immigrants in Qatar

5. the longest journey made by a human

ACTIVITY 4: Personal Questions.

1. What are your everyday trips like?

2. How do you like to travel longer distances?

3. Where would you like to travel to? Why?