

Adjectives ed vs ing ending

Instructions: Complete the sentence with the correct word and then, say the complete sentence.

1. I'm interesting/interested in learning another language.
2. I don't understand this! I'm so confusing/confused!
3. My father-in-law talks for hours about the economy. He's so boring/bored!
4. My internet keeps stopping and starting, it's so frustrating/frustrated!
5. I like my job, but sometimes it is really tiring/tired.
6. Have you seen her new painting? It's amazing/amazed!
7. I was surprising/surprised when my father arrived.
8. My boss is really exciting/excited about the new deal.
9. This old book looks fascinating/fascinated!
10. All the runners are exhausting/exhausted at the end of the marathon.
11. Personally, I think fast food is disgusting/disgusted.
12. I forgot her name three times! It was so embarrassing/embarrassed!