

Idiomatic

Expressions

the apple of somebody's eye

day in, day out

have one's heart set

once in a blue moon

come to an end

go off the deep end

miss the boat

out of the blue

to be bound to happen

Complete the following sentences with the these idiomatic expressions. Make sure the subject and tense matches.

1.Daryl to work when a bike came and crashed into his car.

2.I knew winning , I felt it in my guts.

3.I'm enjoying my but unfurtenaty it is

4.She used to orange juice , now she can't take the smell of it.

5.My sister in Alaska so I see her

6.I realized I had the moment I her invitation to join their team.

7.He never but that movie really moved him.

8.Saying that my cat is falls short, I would let anything bad happen to him.

9.They in next year's dance championship.

Were you able to find the two extra idioms? Write them down.

