Graham and his father are having a conversation. Guess who made the statements (1-6), Graham (G) or his father (F). Then listen and check.

1 I don't think you can do your homework with music on. _F_
2 I'm taking the TV out of your room. ___
3 All my friends multitask. ___
4 You can have the music on - but not so loud and no TV. ___
5 Do you think I can go camping with Sam and Julie in the summer? ___
6 I really think you need one adult with you. ___

Listen again and complete the opinions.

1 Father: I _don't_ think you can do your homework with music on.
   Graham: I'm sorry, I don't _____ with you.
2 Father: I'm taking the TV out of your room.
   Graham: I _____ think it's a bit unfair.
3 Father: Well, in my _____, you need to think about your homework.
   Graham: Okay, you're _____.
4 Graham: Look at my homework. _____ do you think? Is it okay?
   Father: Hmm, yes it's not bad.
5 Father: _____ I think TV is for relaxing after you've done your homework.
   Graham: Okay, I agree with _____ about that.

Dear Jo

I hope you and your grandma have a nice weekend together.

Don't ¹ _forget_ to tidy your room and ² _____ the rubbish out tonight.

Don't ³ _____ too long on your computer or watching TV, and don't ⁴ _____ too much noise. Your grandmother doesn't like your music. When you make something in the kitchen, don't ⁵ _____ a mess for your grandmother. And if you ⁶ _____ to come back late on Saturday night, don't forget to tell her. If you ⁷ _____ to have more pocket money, ask me, not your grandmother.

See you on Monday, love mum

… and don't ⁸ _____ to do your homework!
