

Hi Marie,

What's up? How was your weekend? My birthday is coming up soon, and that's why I'm writing. I'm organising a big birthday party and I'd like to invite you. I am really excited about it.

The party is on 12th of June, at 6.00 p.m. at my place. My parents are visiting their friends, so we can have the living room, the terrace and the whole garden to ourselves! My mum and dad trust me. _____ Monika and Robert are helping me with sandwiches and drinks, and Filip is making all the decorations and bringing some music. _____ They are a good company.

Fifteen guests are coming. You know most of them, but two are new. My cousin and her French boyfriend are coming, too. _____ Everyone loves her because she's funny, chatty and makes everybody laugh! Thierry is a bit shy. _____ Last time, he told us about an old castle in Romania and some horror story about Frankenstein. I was really scared!

That's all for now. See you on Friday.
Kate

- 1 Sarah's our age.
- 2 I am happy about my birthday.
- 3 He tells great stories, so people always enjoy listening to him.
- 4 They are very helpful.
- 5 We get on well together.