

7. What prefix should you add to have the opposite of “popular”?

A. UN-

B. IM-

C. IN-

8. He gave her a cute _____ brown bag.

A. LEATHER

B. BIG

C. ITALIAN

9. I need a new toothbrush. Can you _____ the drugstore and get one for me?

A. STOP BY

B. STAND BY

C. KEEP AWAY FROM

10. We bought personal care items, but the deodorant we needed.

A. WE DIDN'T NEED A DEODORANT

B. WE BOUGHT A DEODORANT

C. WE BOUGHT ALL THE ITEMS EXCEPT THE DEODORANT

H. WRITE 100-120 WORDS ABOUT ONE OF THESE TOPICS:

- Some people stop celebrating their birthdays after a certain age. What's your opinion?
- Write about some kind of behavior you can't put up with.
- Write about positive and negative aspects of giving cell phones to children.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or gray ruling lines. A large, faint, light gray watermark or shadow is visible, running diagonally from the top left towards the bottom right, partially obscuring the lines. The watermark appears to be a stylized letter or logo, possibly 'S' or 'L'. The paper has a slightly textured appearance.

1.30 hour

FINAL EXAMINATION WRITTEN & LISTENING TEST (100 POINTS) THIS IS EXPANDING HORIZONS!

A. LISTEN TO SARAH AND MARK THE SENTENCES T (TRUE) OR F (FALSE):

- Codes are built up of instructions that can be followed.
- Following a recipe is similar to making use of a code.
- We are not supposed to follow codes in a specific order.
- A code is always a secret message.
- At first sight, codes make no sense.

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE

FALSE

TRUE

FALSE

B. LISTEN TO THE TEXT AND COMPLETE WITH THE MISSING INFORMATION:

- Coders are _____.
- _____ can't do without a code.
- Computers _____ languages.
- Three examples of how codes can be used are: _____.
- The speaker wishes _____.

C. LISTEN AND GIVE APPROPRIATE ANSWERS TO THE QUESTIONS:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

