

WATCH THE VIDEO

DRAW THE NAMES TO THE CORRESPONDING CHARACTER.

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |    |     |    |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|  |  |  |  |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |

PUCK

DEMETRIUS

HELENA

TITANIA

BOTTOM

OBERON

LYSANDER

HERMIA

Choose TRUE or FALSE

a. Demetrius loves Hermia but Hermia loves Lysander.

TRUE

FALSE

b. Hermia, Lysander, Demetrius and Helena go to the mountains.

TRUE

FALSE

c. King Oberon wants to play a trick on Puck.

TRUE

FALSE

d. The magic flower makes you love the first thing you see.

TRUE

FALSE

e. Puck thinks Lysander is Demetrius.

TRUE

FALSE

f. Puck is a donkey.

TRUE

FALSE

g. King Oberon is the first thing Queen Titania loves.

TRUE

FALSE

h. Lysander and Demetrius fight because they love Helena.

TRUE

FALSE

i. King Oberon uses a magic sweater to play tricks.

TRUE

FALSE

j. The next morning, everybody remembers what happened.

TRUE

FALSE