Dear Alex

How are you? a I really hope you got the job. I'm sorry I didn't manage to see you before I left home last week, but there was so much to do and suddenly it was departure day. To be honest, I still can't quite believe I'm here, sitting in an internet café on the other side of the world.

The journey here was an adventure in itself. My flight was supposed to be at 8:00 in the morning which meant I had to be at the airport at 6:00, but even at that time there were long queues for the check-in. <sup>1</sup> Finally we took off at 10:30, but that meant I missed my connecting flight and had to stay in a hotel overnight. The airline company organised the accommodation and it was very luxurious, but I just wanted to get here. Anyway, after another day's travelling I got here, but ... you've guessed ... my luggage wasn't on the same flight, so I had to buy some basics like a toothbrush and toothpaste.

<sup>2</sup> Sydney, Australia. I'm staying with my aunt and uncle who live very near the harbour. I've seen so many pictures of the Opera House and the bridge and now I can go and see them whenever I want. I've only been here a week, but I've already seen a lot of the sights and, of course, I've been to Bondi Beach to watch the surfers. <sup>3</sup>

As I'm going to be here for three months, I'm intending to go on a few excursions so I get to see more of the country. <sup>4</sup> I'd like to take the train from Adelaide to Alice Springs although it would be much quicker to fly. At least on the train I'll get some idea of just how big the country is.

I didn't bring my laptop with me, so once I'm on the road I won't be able to write that often, but please write to me and tell me what everyone's doing and I'll write back when I can. <sup>5</sup> Give everyone my love and write back soon.

Kate xx

a How did the interview go?

b I went swimming for the first time yesterday, but the waves were a bit too big for me!

c I'll try and send some photos as well if I can work out how to use my new camera!

d It was crazy, there were people everywhere.

e I think my first trip will be to Ayers Rock.

f So, not quite the best start to this trip of a lifetime, but luckily my suitcase arrived the next day and now, here I am.
