

UNIT 3, LESSON 2

PREPOSITIONS OF LOCATION; THERE IS / THERE ARE

A ▶ 03-11 Listen to the descriptions. Write the number of the description in the correct box.

B Complete the sentences with There's or There are.

1. There's a hospital next to the bank.
2. _____ houses near the park.
3. _____ a library down the street.
4. _____ a bank across from the house.
5. _____ a bus stop around the corner.
6. _____ restaurants near the apartment.
7. _____ two drugstores in town.
8. _____ a shopping center on First Street.

C Look at the map. Complete the conversation. Use the prepositions of location from the box. Use some prepositions more than once.

across from   between   down the street from   next to   around the corner from   near

Amy: My new apartment is in a great neighborhood.
It's near <sup>1</sup> a lot of restaurants.
The building is <sup>2</sup> a large park.

Brad: Are there any stores near you?

Amy: Yes, there's a small supermarket <sup>3</sup> my apartment.
And there's a large shopping center <sup>4</sup> the apartment.

Brad: Oh, is the shopping center <sup>5</sup> the bank?

Amy: Yes. It's <sup>6</sup> the bank and the drugstore.

Brad: That's Park Street. You know the gas station on Main Street?

Amy: I think so. It's <sup>7</sup> the drugstore, right?

Brad: Right. There are lots of nice restaurants <sup>8</sup> the gas station.
There's also a very good coffee shop <sup>9</sup> the restaurants.
It's <sup>10</sup> the library.

Amy: Cool. Let's have coffee there.

