

FILM GENRES

Complete the texts with the given words

Comedy is a genre of film which pays attention to  and usually has a happy . Comedy is one of the most popular and  genres. A laughter can come from both situations and . Some films doesn't have any specific , their goal is to make people . But many of comedy films also have  and social commentary. Many people  that comedy is too broad to be a genre and it includes many other sub-genres.

Drama is a very serious  that portrays realistic characters. It usually shows different conflicts, emotions and  of characters. This genre doesn't pay  to the plot but focuses on characters and their  development. Drama films also show real life  and tell honest . Drama and comedy are one of the most popular  today. Comedies make us laugh and dramas tell us  stories.

Action films show fighting, , car chases or explosions. Action films are usually very , because stunts and computer effects have a big budget. This films usually have one  and one  that our hero must fight. These films don't pay much attention to the  and focus on  topics. People like these films because they are simple,  and they entertain us. Some people don't like too many special  in action films but this genre is very funny and interesting for everyone.

story

say

humor

political

laugh

successful

ending

dialogues

personal

genres

situations

film

story

interesting

problems

attention

simple

stunts

funny

hero

effects

story

villain

expensive

