長篇聽解 25

25 Answer:

The expert introduced	Jane Goodall
Her breakthrough	She is an expert on chimpanzees. She became the first person to find that _____.
Her story of becoming an expert on chimpanzees	Jane Goodall began her research into chimpanzees from scratch. She revealed that chimpanzees are not _____. On the contrary, they could _____. To her surprise, she found that they were the most _____ advanced creatures other than human beings. What's more, she was the first person to give _____ to chimpanzees, instead of using numbers.

( ) (1)(A) A scientist's observations of chimpanzees.
(B) The personal traits of a good researcher.
(C) Places where scientist can make new discoveries.
(D) Methods and steps in carrying out research on animals.

( ) (2)(A) They like to steal tools from human beings.
(B) They were in the habit of giving each other names.
(C) They worked in groups to catch their prey.
(D) They did not eat meat or attack other animals.

( ) (3)(A) To kill other chimps.
(B) To trap prey.
(C) To communicate with each other.
(D) To build their homes.

( ) (4)(A) Her interest in chimpanzees developed when she was young.
(B) She prepared many things for her journey to Tanzania.
(C) She gave names to the chimpanzees she observed.
(D) Her achievements in animal research are important.

長篇聽解 26

26 Answer:

	Chinese mythology	Greek mythology
Similarities	1. Human beings are created in the shape of _____. 2. It is not uncommon for _____.
Differences	1. Chinese gods are holy. 2. Chinese gods are free from _____.	1. Greek gods represent human beings. 2. Greek gods may _____.

( ) (1)(A) How to do research on mythology.
(B) A comparison and contrast of mythology.
(C) The development of mythology.
(D) Whether gods are good or not.

( ) (2)(A) A college professor.
(B) A Chinese cook.
(C) An engineer.
(D) A Greek god.

( ) (3)(A) Reading a book to find more information.
(B) Watching a TV program about mythology.
(C) Asking a librarian for more details.
(D) Spending time doing research online.

( ) (4)(A) Where people go after they die.
(B) How people are created.
(C) Whom gods may marry.
(D) Whether gods are similar to humans.

LIVEWORKSHEETS