

The Inside Story (pages 83-92)

Correct the wrong information. Some sentences have no mistakes.

1. The narrator in Elissa's story planned to kill Mrs Gilbey and her lover.

2. Mr Gilbey was thrilled to learn he was going to become a father.

3. The narrator's letter to Mrs Gilbey would act as proof for her wanting a divorce.

4. The narrator set fire to the curtains to burn the Gilbey's house down.

5. Mr Gilbey survived the fire because he had been away that night.

6. The narrator hoped Mr Gilbey would now marry her.

7. Elissa's story differed from Sheila Porter's in many ways.

8. The word "earthquake" helped Morse find out the real-husband's identity.

9. When questioned by the police, Dr Grainger denied knowing Sheila Porter.

10. Both Mr and Mrs Grainger had an alibi.

11. Mrs Grainger was having an affair with her cleaner.

12. Bayley's short, fat fingers gave him away.