Learning Idioms from Movie

Word set 2

1. Are you kidding me?
2. To be in the middle of
3. Let me put on you hold
4. Step inside for a minute
5. you're in the wind

Idioms Practice 2

Exercise 1: Match the idioms with their definitions.

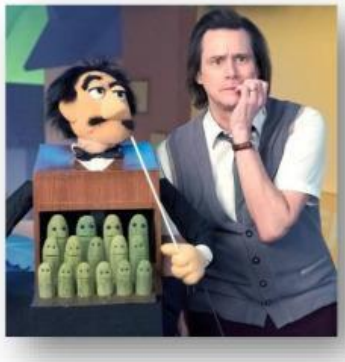

_____ 1. Are you kidding me?
_____ 2. To be in the middle of
_____ 3. Let me put you on hold
_____ 4. Step inside for a minute
_____ 5. you're in the wind\

a. to hold the call/to hold the line
b. facetiousness; joking
c. in a very short time/very soon
d. something is missing
e. to be busy doing something

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2: Match the words with each picture.

1. Are you kidding me?
2. To be in the middle of
3. Let me put you on hold / put (someone) on hold
4. Step inside for a minute
5. you're in the wind

☐ 1.

☐ 2.

☐ 3.

☐ 4.

☐ 5.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3: Complete the blanks with the appropriate choice.

1. Rachel: The manager says that we need to finish this work by tonight.
   Trisha: _____ Yesterday, he said that we had until next week to finish it.

   1. Did you kidding me?
   2. Do you kidding me?
   3. Have you kidding me?
   4. Are you kidding me?

2. Debbie Woolrich, age nine, remains _____ but there's little hope she's alive.

   1. you're on the wind
   2. you're into the wind
   3. you're in the wind
   4. you're out the wind

3. They _____ until they got enough money to finish it.

   1. put the project in hold
   2. put the project on hold
   3. put the project in hole
   4. put the project on hole

4. A WHO team hopes to travel to the province _____.

   1. step inside in a minute
   2. step inside to a minute
   3. step inside for a minute
   4. step inside of a minute

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. We're _____ the crowd, so it will take us a while to push our way out.

1. to be in the middle of
2. being in the middle of
3. to be on the middle of
4. to be the middle of

LIVEWORKSHEETS