

Some & Any

Some

We use some in affirmative statements.

- ❖ I've got some tomatoes.
- ❖ I ate some fruit for breakfast.
- ❖ There are some potatoes on the table.
- ❖ There is some water in the glass.

Any

We use any in negative statements.

- ❖ I haven't got any tomatoes.
- ❖ There aren't any potatoes on the table.

We use any in questions.

- ❖ Did you eat any fruit for breakfast?
- ❖ Is there any water in the glass?

NOTE

We can use some and any with countable and uncountable nouns.

There are some lemons.

There is some cheese.

There aren't any lemons.

Are there any lemons?

There isn't any cheese.

Is there any cheese?

Practice

Complete the sentences with some or any.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. There are _____ oranges. | 11. There aren't _____ mushrooms. |
| 2. There isn't _____ milk. | 12. Is there _____ salt? |
| 3. There is _____ water. | 13. There are _____ cabbages. |
| 4. Are there _____ onions? | 14. There isn't _____ bread. |
| 5. Is there _____ lemonade? | 15. Is there _____ wine? |
| 6. There are _____ potatoes. | 16. There is _____ butter. |
| 7. There is _____ fish. | 17. Are there _____ eggs? |
| 8. There aren't _____ carrots. | 18. There isn't _____ chicken. |
| 9. Are there _____ sausages? | 19. There is _____ tuna. |
| 10. There is _____ ham. | 20. There aren't _____ bananas. |