

Modal verbs (certainty/ability/possibility): Choose the correct

When he was young, my grandfather can/could run 12 kilometres.

John can't run very fast but he must/can jump high.

Should/ Were you able to finish your homework last week?

It's late. We should/ might go home now.

These sports shoes are expensive. We couldn't/ shouldn't buy them.

You didn't practise for the event. You can't/ mustn't take part in the competition.

The windows are open. Someone can/must be in the house.

I can't believe you. Sarah is a good friend. She can't/mustn't be telling me lies.

Try the food! It can't/must be good. The chef is very experienced.

It could/must be snowing later in the week according to the weather forecast.

Gina and Tim may/must be in Spain this summer but they haven't booked their tickets yet.