

HOMEWORK WEEK 34

TASK 1

Match sentence halves: draw lines from left to right.

If I weren't in class now I'd be when I found a wallet with lots of money.
The most surprising thing that ever happened to me was knitting.
If I won the lottery, I would give away some of the money and use the rest for a trip around the world.
You wouldn't know it, but I'm actually very good at walking in the mountains right now.
You may not believe it, but I don't know how to make marmalade. It's a real pity.
I love to wear not going to a Sting concert last year.
I spend all my money on bicycle: it's ecological and good for the health.
I think the best invention ever made is the my bicycle. It is my real passion.
My biggest regret is pink clothes. I like to be seen.

TASK 2

Complete the sentences. Use just ONE word in each gap.

If I were _____ I would tell the teacher that English grammar is difficult for you.

Why don't _____ do your homework regularly? I think it's a good _____ .

I don't want to spend so much money _____ clothes – I prefer to buy books instead.

Who do you think has been the best singer _____ ?

TASK 3

Are these sentences TRUE or FALSE? Write in T for true or F for false.

Uluru is a rock in Australia.

The Rocky Mountains are in the USA.

The White House is the headquarters of the British Prime Minister.

Niagara Falls lies on the border between the USA and Canada.

English is the official language in the US.

Edinburgh is a city in Ireland.