

How hot is Venus?

How fast is an airplane?

1 Write questions with How using the prompts.Then match them to the correct answers.

1. big / Mars / ?

2. fast / a rocket / ?

3. hot / the sun / ?

4. cold / space / ?

a. Its core's temperature is 15.5 million°C.

b. It travels at 28,968 kilometers per hour to reach space.

c. It's very cold. It's around -270.45°C.

d. It's nearly 150 million square kilometers.

2 Look and complete the dialogue with will plus a verb in the box.visit call download leave goMARK: This is an amazing science museum, but I don't know what exhibits to look at! Oh, I know!

I (1) _____ the museum app on my phone!

ANNE: That's a good idea! I think I (2) _____ the space exhibit first.MARK: OK, I (3) _____ to the robot exhibit because we're studying robots at school at the moment.ANNE: Fine, I (4) _____ you when I've finished and we can meet for lunch.MARK: OK! I (5) _____ my phone on so I don't miss your call. See you later!

Open to Learn

"I'm worried about the Science test," said Sue. "I'll help you study," promised John.

"It's a great menu," said Tom.

"Yes, it is! I'll have the burger and French fries," decided Hugo.

Space Museum

3 Unscramble the sentences. Then write the name of the speaker. SB

1. life-like / be / Robots / more / may / .

Speaker: _____

2. help / . / They / our / chores / us / do / will

Speaker: _____

3. homes / our / in / have / We / robots / in / future / . / might / all / the

Speaker: _____

4. thinking / will / . / machines / Robots / be / definitely

Speaker: _____

4 Read and complete using will, may or might plus the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

What job will you do when you grow up?

I'm really not sure yet. I (1)_____ (become) an engineer or I (2)_____ (work) as a scientist.

I know exactly what I want to do. I (3)_____ (get) a job as a designer and I (4)_____ (design) a robot that can think!

I don't really know what I want to do in the future. I (5)_____ (work) in a school as a science teacher or I (6)_____ (become) an astronaut!

Open to Learn

I'll become an architect.
I'm sure this will happen.

I might / may become an architect. I think this will happen, but I'm not sure.