For, Since, Just, Yet, Already

A. Choose for or since.

1. I've worked her for/since 6 years.
2. He has lived in Berlin for/since three months.
3. Florencia has studied English for/since she was 7 years old.
4. We've been waiting for/since 12 hours.
5. They have been practicing for/since months.
6. Augusto has known Malvina for/since 2011.

B. Choose already, just or yet.

1. Have you learnt all the verb tenses _____?
2. Susan has _____ visited London. She's been there twice.
3. They have _____ arrived from their trip from Puerto Rico.
4. Nico has _____ studied for the exam, but he hasn't taken it _____.
5. I won't eat, thank you. I've _____ eaten three burgers.

C. Create sentences using Present Perfect with for, since, just, yet or already.

1. She / know / all her neighbours in a week.
2. You / have breakfast?
3. My son / go / to bed.
4. He / have / a shower
5. Fran / live here / 2003.
6. Alicia and Raul / marry / seven years.

LIVEWORKSHEETS