

Listen the next video and select the correct answer.

1. What is the first step in starting a community action project?
 - A) Finding sponsors
 - B) Setting a budget
 - C) Identifying a community issue
 - D) Designing promotional materials

2. What does the video suggest as an effective way to identify community needs?
 - A) Conducting surveys and interviews
 - B) Raising funds
 - C) Creating a project logo
 - D) Contacting local politicians

3. What is a key benefit of involving community members in project planning?

- A) It reduces the need for funding.
- B) It ensures quick project completion.
- C) It increases project visibility.
- D) It results in better project outcomes.

4. What is a common challenge when implementing a community action project?

- A) Lack of community interest
- B) Excessive project budget
- C) Overwhelming government support
- D) Overcommunication with stakeholders

5. What does the video recommend for sustaining a community action project's impact?

- A) Ignoring feedback from participants
- B) Avoiding collaboration with other organizations
- C) Continuously evaluating and adapting the project
- D) Keeping project details secretive

True or False Questions

- a) Starting a community action project requires identifying a relevant community issue.

True / False

- b) Raising funds is the only way to understand the needs of the community.

True / False

- c) Involving community members in project planning leads to more successful outcomes.

True / False

- d) Challenges are not a normal part of community action projects.

True / False

- e) To sustain the impact of a project, continuous evaluation and adaptation are important.

True / False

