

- Say → something → (to someone)
* She didn't say anything
* I want to say hello to my sister

- Tell → someone → something
* Tell me about your new house.
* Tell your teacher to call me tomorrow.

Complete the sentences using SAY or TELL.

1. Can you _____ me the way to the station, please?
2. He didn't _____ a word.
3. Let me _____ you something about my hobbies.
4. Why didn't you _____ him that before?
5. Why didn't you _____ that before?
6. You don't need to _____ us that.
7. _____ us about your new school? Is it good?
8. Don't just stand there! _____ something!
9. _____ him to meet us here.
10. Can you _____ your name again?
11. –Where are they going? – She didn't _____.
12. –Where are they going? – She didn't _____ me.
13. What did he _____?
14. What did he _____ you?
15. _____ hi to Paul for me!
16. I want to _____ something about our teacher.
17. I want to _____ you something about our teacher.
18. Did he _____ how it happened?
19. Did he _____ you how it happened?
20. Why don't you _____ him the truth?

Choose the correct option.

1. Anthony ____ that he was hungry.

- said
- told

2. Tara ____ me that you were ill.

- said
- told

3. He ____ everybody that he's French.

- says
- tells

4. He ____ me that he was angry.

- said
- told

5. The doctor ____ she had to exercise more.

- said
- told

6. "That's a great idea!" she ____ .

- said
- told

7. His mother always ____ , "Be careful, won't you?"

- says
- tells

