

News Report: The happiest job in the world?

Read the text and put the verb in the correct tense (Past simple or Past continuous)

Which would make you happier? Working in a pub, or at the pulpit?

In early 2014, BBC news _____ (report) on research about the connection between jobs and levels of life satisfaction. It _____ (find) pub workers are unhappiest and members of the clergy are most satisfied.

But is this true in real life?

Paul Mundy _____ (work) in a pub when he _____ (decide) to become a vicar. He says the two roles are very different, but he actually enjoys both. And there are similarities: both are quite stressful and let you see people at the "best and worst of times".

He says: "If you've got people coming through the door and the till's ringing, you're the happiest publican in the world.

"And if you're standing in the pulpit and you've got lots of bottoms on seats, you're the happiest vicar in the world as well."

Listen and check

Complete the questions and answer

1. When _____ the BBC _____ (make) the study?
2. What _____ the research _____ (find)?
3. What _____ Paul _____ (work) as before being a vicar?
4. Were you _____ (do) another job before your present one?