Grammar training
Adjectives in structures

Tick the correct sentences.

1. After years of practice, Sam is no longer afraid of public speaking.
2. Among all the dresses, this one is the least stylish.
3. This book is far the most thrilling in the series.
4. The situation isn't becoming any clearer despite our efforts.
5. Drake's as determined to win as Rita is.
6. The earlier you arrive, the fresher the food will be.
7. The river is getting wider and wider as it flows downstream.
8. She's slightly more organized than her brother.
9. I can run half as fast as my sister.
10. The sunset was most beautiful last night!
11. This movie is not as exciting than the one we saw last weekend.
12. He no longer has any motivation to continue working on that project.
13. Aiden is by far the funniest guy in school. His jokes have everyone in stitches.
14. Tyler is half as organized as Emma. Her study notes are always color-coded and neatly arranged.
15. Ethan is much into sports than Lily, playing multiple sports throughout the year.
16. Adrien is even more tall than Coach Davis. It gives him an advantage on the court.
17. The highest the mountain, the most challenging the climb.
18. The workload at my job is overwhelming enough this week. I am so stressed out!
19. The pizza was too hot when it arrived, so we had to reheat it.
20. Liam is twice so tech-savvy as Ava.

English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS