

Goodbye, Hello!

Author: _____

BEFORE YOU READ

Imagine you see someone you like and want to talk to. You do not know him/her.

What do you do? _____ Why? _____

_____

Vocabulary

Translate these words into your native language. Choose a picture to help you remember their meanings. (Drag.)

sale	sorry	beautiful	remember	everybody	shopping cart
_____/p__	_____/p__	_____/p__	_____/p__	_____/p__	_____/p__

WHILE YOU READ

Write the page number (p) that tells where you saw each of the words for the first time.

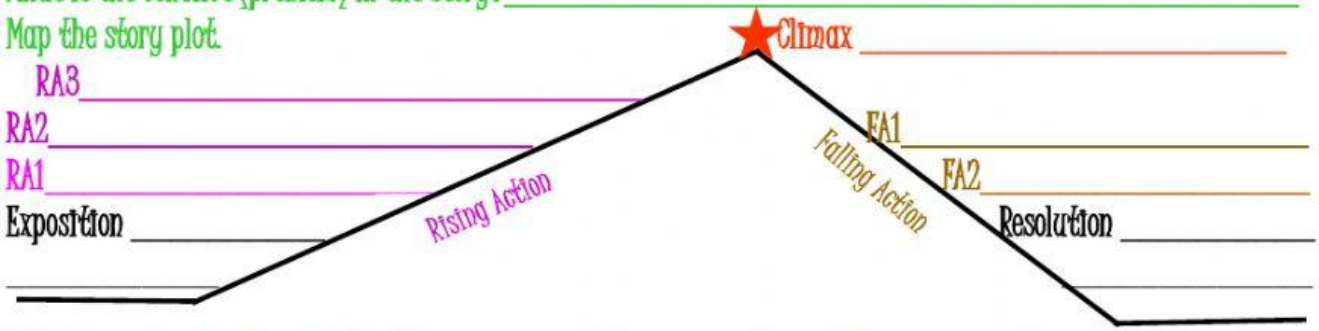

AFTER YOU READ

Who were the main characters in the story? _____

Describe the setting of the story. _____

What is the conflict (problem) in the story? _____

Map the story plot.

What type of conflict was this? ❒ man vs. man ❒ man vs. nature ❒ man vs. society ❒ man vs. self

Explain: _____

How was the conflict solved? _____

Was the main character static or dynamic? _____ Explain. _____

_____

Choose a main character. Complete this sentence with 2 examples: The character _____ showed the character trait _____ when s/he _____ and _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Hello, Goodbye! (continued)

This story takes place in a department store. A department store sells many different kinds of items, unlike a book store or a clothing store that sells only one kind of item. Look at the pictures. Write the department in which you would find each item. Here are some departments. Look up the ones you do not know. Sports Stationery Electronics Accessories Cosmetics Clothing Appliances

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

Which department is your favorite? _____ Why? _____ What would you buy there? _____ How much would it cost? _____

Why are Daniela and Alex shopping? _____

Are they looking at things that are good for this? _____ What are they looking at? _____

What should they look at? Give them some suggestions. _____

What does Alex say when Jessica asks him if he is okay? _____ What does Alex say when Jenny asks him if he is okay? _____ Why do you think his answers change? _____

Why is Daniela angry when Alex leaves the store? _____

The books says about Alex, "He is happy, but he is sad." Explain. _____

_____

Why does Alex like the girl in red? _____ Is this a good reason to like someone? Explain. _____

_____

Do you think the girl in red likes Alex? _____ Why? _____

Why do you think the author gave this book the title Goodbye, Hello!? _____

_____

Look at the pictures in the book. What kind of class do you think Alex is in? _____ Why? _____ Why doesn't Alex listen to Mr. Williams? _____

Predict!

What happens after the book ends? Write a new chapter! Each section must have 3 or more sentences.

First, _____

Next, _____

Then, _____

Finally, _____

Do you think this story is realistic (could happen in real life)? _____ Give at least 2 reasons for your answer. Remember to write in sentences. _____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS