

Story: Cinderella

Once upon a time, in a faraway kingdom, lived a kind-hearted girl named Cinderella. She was treated poorly by her wicked stepmother and stepsisters, who made her do all the chores while they enjoyed a life of luxury.

One day, an invitation arrived at their doorstep. The royal palace was hosting a grand ball, and everyone was invited, including Cinderella's stepmother and stepsisters. However, they forbade Cinderella from attending, leaving her heartbroken.

Cinderella's fairy godmother appeared and, with a wave of her magic wand, transformed Cinderella into a beautiful princess. She also turned a pumpkin into a carriage, mice into horses, and created a stunning gown and glass slippers for Cinderella.

At the ball, Cinderella danced with the handsome prince, and they fell in love. However, as the clock struck midnight, Cinderella had to rush home, leaving behind a glass slipper.

The prince searched for the owner of the glass slipper. When he found Cinderella, the slipper fit perfectly, and they lived happily ever after.
