WRITING SKILLS

NAME

Adverbs

An adverb tells you something about a verb. It answers the question How? It usually comes after the verb.

EXAMPLE: When we laugh, we breath (verb) quickly. (adverb)

We usually form an adverb by adding -ly to an adjective.

EXAMPLES: loud → loudly; quiet → quietly

Change the adjectives in parentheses into adverbs, and rewrite the sentences.

1. She laughs (free).

_____

2. He laughs (loud).

_____

3. She laughs (shy).

_____

4. He laughs (nervous).

_____

5. They are studying (serious).

_____

6. He speaks (quiet).

_____

Write five sentences about yourself, using the adverbs in the box.

loudly	quickly	quietly	seriously	slowly

1. _____

_____

2. _____

_____

3. _____

_____

4. _____

_____

5. _____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS