

Exercise 7 In each sentence, underline the word with either a neutral or a positive connotations.

Ex. Your hair is quite fine / thin.

1. He is an	6. What a
2. "I won't," she	7. The room is a
3. You're a	8. The vase is
4. That plan is	9. She is
5. I think she's a	10. He is

Exercise 8 Look at the sentences below. Some are facts and some are opinions.

Mark F for facts and O for opinions.

1. The brick is eight inches long.	_____
2. That girl is snobbish.	_____
3. The story was funny.	_____
4. $4 + 5$ is equal to 8	_____
5. It is safer to travel by train.	_____
6. By the year 2025, there will be no cars on the highway.	_____
7. On May 24, two students were arrested for stealing a car.	_____
8. Liverpool would have won the football match if it was not raining.	_____
9. Sri Lanka is poorer than Malaysia or Thailand.	_____
10. Ancient bones and pot were discovered in the Northeast of Thailand.	_____