

Plural

Mets les mots entre parenthèses au pluriel.

1. They've got three (child) : two (son) and a daughter.
2. The (boy) are called Tom and Brad and the girl is called Sarah.
3. Those (exercise) are very easy.
4. The (postman) usually deliver the (letter) before twelve.
5. Where are the (guy)? They're in the park.
6. Manchester United (footballer) always win the (match)
7. Many (person) and (tourist) visit the old (church) and the (museum)
8. Those (businesswoman) are very tired.
9. I must see a dentist: my (tooth) ache. (to ache - faire mal)
10. Merry Christmas and best (wish)!
11. I must buy two (box) of chocolate!
12. There are more than thousand (pupil) in this school.
13. My dance (class) are on Wednesdays and Saturdays.
14. He can do that job without any (difficulty)
15. Have you visited a lot of (country) ?