MAY AND MIGHT TO EXPRESS PROBABILITY

May means "puede" and is used for a higher probability that something happens.

Might means "podría" and is used for a lower probability that something happens.

Example:

There is no traffic.

I might arrive to the party on time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I. Look at the pictures and write sentences with may or migh

It may rain

LIVEWORKSHEETS

II. Write the questions in the correct order. Then practice the conversations with a partner.

► I / ask / a question / may

May I ask a question?

Yes, go ahead. What is it?

1 borrow / I / your / may / dictionary

_____ ?

Yes, of course.

2 photocopier / may / use / I / the

_____ ?

I'm afraid it's not working at the moment.

3 my bike / here / leave / I / may

_____ ?

Yes, of course. It'll be fine here.

4 have / may / a cake / I

_____ ?

No, you may not! You've just had breakfast!

LIVEWORKSHEETS