QUANTIFIERS

Read the rules about quantifiers in p.172. Complete the charts with the missing information.

QUANTIFIER	A LOT OF / LOTS OF / LOADS OF / [ ] OF	[ ] / ONE OR TWO / A COUPLE OF / A FEW	A [ ] / A BIT OF	SOME
Use / example	[ ] nouns – There's plenty of food in the fridge. Plural nouns - There are a lot of food shops in my neighborhood.	Plural nouns – I've been to several nice cafés by the river.	Uncountable nouns – We've got a little money left. Let's get some ice cream.	Uncountable nouns – I've got some food. [ ] nouns – He bought some souvenirs.
meaning	large quantities	[ ] quantities	smaller quantities	[ ], non-specific quantities

QUANTIFIER	MANY	MUCH
Type of noun	Plural	Uncountable
affirmative	Too… (more than we want) You brought too many tomatoes. – We only need three. Formal [ ] English There are many ways to save money.	Too…(more than we want) There's [ ] noise in here – I can't work.
Questions	Were there many nice clothes in the sale?	Is there much noise in that room?

QUANTIFIER	ANY	NOT ANY
Use / example	Plural nouns – Are there any buscuits in the jar? uncountable nouns - Do you have any chocolates left?	Plural nouns – There aren't any seats available. uncountable nouns – We haven't got any milk left.
meaning	to ask [ ]	[ ] quantity

LIVEWORKSHEETS