

QUEEN ELIZABETH SCHOOL READING EVALUATION

READING

1

The drama club practiced before the show. Noah listened to everyone singing and acting.

"What time does the show start?" he asked.

"8 o'clock," said Lily.

Noah looked at his watch. It was 7:45. His stomach felt funny.

"Don't worry," said Lily. "We'll help each other. Break a leg!"

"Break a leg?"

"It means good luck, silly."

"I knew that," said Noah, breaking into a big smile. "Thanks—you break your leg, too!"

2 Read and choose.

1 The show starts in ...

- A one minute. B 15 minutes. C one hour.

2 Why does Noah's stomach feel funny?

- A He is worried about the show. B He ate too much. C He is sick.

3 In the story, Break a leg means ...

- A Hurry up! B Good luck! C Time for the show to start!

4 How does Noah feel at the end of the story?

- A happy B frightened C sad

5 How does the story show good teamwork?

- A It is about a drama club. B There are many people in the play.
C Lily helps Noah when he is worried.

6 Which is the best title for the story?

- A Let's Practice B Helping Each Other C Noah Breaks His Leg

Score: / 10

3 Read and choose.

1 The drama / singing / dancing club practiced.

2 From backstage came the sound of singing / dancing / piano playing.

3 The show started at 8:00 / 7:45 / 8:15.

4 Noah's stomach felt funny / sore / full.

5 Lily said, "Break a toe / foot / leg!"

6 Noah has a big smile / frown / cry.

Score: / 10