

GE6 UNIT 1 OUR WORLD 4

1. Read and choose the correct words to complete the sentences:

longitude	North Pole	mean	city	parallel
vertical	harm	bully	scratch	country
town	district	latitude	street	equator
degrees	starve	South Pole	continents	pollution

The _____ is an imaginary line around the Earth that divides the Earth into 2 equal parts.

Clara's classmates are really _____ to her. They often talk behind her back.

My grandparents live in a small _____ in Central Vietnam.

Hanoi is the capital _____ of Vietnam.

The seven _____ on our planet are Australia, Asia, Europe, Africa, North America, South America, and Antarctica.

We have lived in Long Bien _____ for 2 years.

Vietnam is the most beautiful _____ I have ever visited.

Air _____ is a serious problem in Vietnam. In 2021, the country ranked 36th out of 118 countries with the worst air quality.

Don't worry, you can touch my iguana. It's not going to _____ you.

I was walking down the _____ when Mary fell off her bike.

Let's go eat something! I don't want to _____ myself to death.

Lines of _____ circle the Earth from east to west, and they are _____ to the equator.

Lines of _____ run from the North Pole to the _____. The lines divide the Earth's surface into _____ sections, like pieces of an orange.

Polar bears and arctic foxes are _____ animals.

I know you feel itchy because of the mosquito bites but try not to _____ your arms.

The equator is the line of 0 _____ (0°) latitude.

My neighbor used to _____ me when we were kids. She made me give her my toys.

2. Complete the sentences with yet/ just/ already/ ever/ never:

Have you _____ been to Antarctica?

Your dog has _____ returned home. You don't have to worry anymore.

Have they _____ met Donald Trump in person?

I think I'm very lucky. I have _____ had a nightmare.

We are ready to take off. We have packed our suitcases _____.

Has Clare finished her meal _____? No, mom. She is still eating.

No, your cousin hasn't arrived at the airport _____.

Would you like some pasta? – No thanks. I have _____ had dinner.

Don't push her to eat now. She has _____ had a glass of milk.

Have you finished your homework _____?

Don't lie to us, Karen. Anna has _____ told us the whole story about you and your sibling.

My husband wanted to see Spiderman 3 but I have _____ seen it.

3. For each question, write the correct answer.

From: Jade

To: Alex

Sorry I haven't written (1) _____ such a long time! I (2) _____ just moved to my new room at university and I only got my internet connection today. It's good (3) be online again! My room is in (4) _____ large building and there _____ lots of other students here. I've already _____ a few of them. The people here (5) really friendly.

In my room, there's a bed, a wardrobe for my clothes, a chair (6) _____ a large desk for my computer. It's (7) _____ to the window, so I'll have good light when I'm studying.

I'll (8) _____ again with more news soon!

Best,

Jade