

Match These Words to Their Definitions

1. repetitive	a. Involving risk or potential harm to oneself or others.
2. motivating	b. Involving doing the same task over and over again in a monotonous way.
3. dead-end	c. Causing fatigue or exhaustion due to physical or mental effort.
4. job	d. Causing feelings of pressure, anxiety, or overwhelm due to high demands or expectations.
5. skilled	e. Involving physical labor or work done with the hands.
6. undemanding	f. An activity that one does regularly to earn money, often without requiring specialized education or training.
7. rewarding	g. Feeling overwhelmed or anxious due to pressure or demands from work or other sources.
8. work	h. Not interesting or engaging; causing feelings of monotony or disinterest.
9. safe	i. Possessing or demonstrating expertise or proficiency in a particular area.
10. tiring	j. Requiring little effort or skill to complete.
11. dangerous	k. A job or career path with no opportunities for advancement or growth.
12. boring	l. A type of job that requires specialized education or training and is often regulated by a professional organization.
13. repeating	m. Requiring specialized knowledge or abilities gained through education or experience.
14. challenging	n. Providing satisfaction or a sense of accomplishment for completing a task or achieving a goal.
15. stressed	o. Any activity that involves effort or exertion towards a particular goal, whether paid or unpaid.
16. mental	p. Inspiring or encouraging someone to take action or achieve a goal.
17. manual	q. Requiring significant effort or skill to complete successfully.
18. skillful	r. Doing something again, either intentionally or unintentionally.
19. profession	s. Free from harm or danger.
20. stressful	t. Relating to the mind or intellect rather than the body or physical labor.