5 Home and away

Reading

1 Read the two emails on page 33. Are Jenny and Kaz living in the same country?

Yes, they are. No, they aren't.

2 Read the emails again. Circle the correct opinion to complete the sentences.

1 Kaz thinks the weather is good / bad where she lives.

2 Kaz likes / doesn't like staying home in the winter.

3 Kaz loves / hates her blanket.

4 Jenny's neighbor thinks it's a little / very hot.

5 Jenny likes / doesn't like cold weather.

6 Jenny loves / hates the view from her apartment.

7 Jenny thinks green tea is the best tea / OK.

4 Read the emails again. Match these words from the emails with their definitions (1–6). Use the text around each word to help you understand the meaning before you use a dictionary.

New Message

Hi Jenny,

How are you? I miss you! Tell me all your news! It's cold and dark here. I think this is the coldest winter in years. I didn't leave the house all weekend because the weather was so horrendous!

But it's OK—staying home is great when it's awful outside. You know me, I love sitting under a blanket and reading a good book! We got new heaters and windows last year and now the house is really warm, but I still use that blanket you made me. It's so soft and comfortable. It's awesome.

I hope you are doing well and you're not missing home too much! If there's anything you want from here, just let me know. I can send it to you.

Lots of love,

Kaz

Hi Kaz,

Thanks for your email. It's great to hear from you. Your house sounds nice and warm. Sorry to hear the weather is awful. It's the opposite here. My neighbor says this is the hottest summer in a long time!

I need to sleep with the fan on and the window open every night. It's great to have fresh air, but it's noisy. Plus, there are lots of insects and they like to bite me! I actually miss the cold weather.

I really love my new apartment, though. It's beautiful. It has the most incredible view of the park and a big balcony. It's such a great place to live.

I'm enjoying my classes, but I'm missing home a little. I'd love to see everyone and to have a nice cup of tea! If you want to send me something, you can mail me teabags! You know the best ones to buy. The ones here are nice, but nothing is better than green tea!

Love,

Jenny
