

Grammar training

Some/ Any/ No

Tick the correct sentences.

1. I bought some new furniture for the living room to freshen up the space.
2. Is there any hope for our team to win the championship this year?
3. She found any interesting books at the library today; it was quite disappointing.
4. Do you have any spare time this weekend to help with the charity event?
5. There's no way we can finish the project by tomorrow; it's too complex.
6. We need to purchase no groceries for dinner tonight; we're running low.
7. Have you received any invitations to the party next Saturday?
8. He had no doubt that he could complete the marathon; he trained hard.
9. Is there any possibility of rain this afternoon for the outdoor event?
10. She always carries no snacks in her bag in case she gets hungry.
11. We have any more patience left after waiting for hours; it's time to leave.
12. Would you like some advice on how to improve your study habits?
13. There's no point in arguing about it; let's find a solution instead.
14. Do you have any questions about the upcoming exam? Feel free to ask.
15. He found any old photographs in the attic while cleaning it out.
16. Is there any interest in joining the photography club at school?
17. We should have some free time this evening to catch up on our favorite TV show.
18. They made no effort to resolve the conflict peacefully; it escalated quickly.
19. She's never shown some fear of heights; she loves adventure sports.
20. There's no time like the present to start working on your goals; don't procrastinate.

