You've Got Talent! You've Got Talent!

We've reached another final of the TV talent show You've Got Talent! and once again we've got four incredible finalists. Whoever wins will get £500,000 and a recording contract. So, let's see our hopefuls. Georgia and Sparky have charmed the judges and audience right from the start with their dance routines. Sparky is the first dog ever to reach the competition's final. Georgia's dream is for Sparky to work in films and be the next Lassie. Georgia says: 'I hope fame doesn't go to Sparky's head! I think he would make a great actor.'

Boys Aloud are a singing group of 60 boys between 14 and 19 years old. And they're breathing new life into the world of choir music. The group's choir teacher believes the competition has given the children a way to build their confidence. Martin says: 'Our dreams will definitely come true if we win on Saturday.'

17-year-old Jason and 16-year-old Carla are a classical music duo. They first sang together when their teacher paired them up in a music lesson at school. They've moved the judges to tears at every stage. Jason says: 'We don't know who'll win on Saturday. It might be us or it might not. It doesn't matter because it's not about the prize or winning; it's about having a chance to do something we love: singing.' Lucy, Maria, Shelly and Hannah are the four girls who make up the underwater dancing group Aqua Acrobatics. They've only been dancing together for six months, but they've caused a splash throughout the audition stages with their lively synchronized swimming routines. Hannah says: 'We hope that we'll be able to entertain the nation with something we love doing.'
